Executive Director's Message

HE IS RISEN

Greetings,

To all our dear friends, we hope this newsletter finds you doing well and that you all had wonderful Easter celebrations. We pray for the safety of all those struggling in some of the worst of circumstances imaginable, and know that Our Lord will provide them their just reward.

Your continued support helps our ALLELUIA, ALLELUIA moms understand the value of human life. They are always surprised and incredibly grateful that people they don't know would help them. You recently helped us get 4 pregnant women into local shelters and your support will help us provide them everything their babies need when they are born.

Despite the headline news, the confluence of Easter and Spring always brings to mind the restorative power of new life. May you continue to enjoy the wonders of His creation and the joy of this beautiful season.

Paul Belasic and fellow scouts work towards assisting Paul to obtain his Eagle Scout rank by collecting baby items and stocking New Hope's shelves. We continue to be impressed with how many young people are excited to help our organization.

DRESS FOR SUCCESS - YOU CAN HELP

Once a year, New Hope offers our clients a Dress for Success workshop. It is a day many of our moms look forward to and it is heartwarming to see them come to the Center and choose a few outfits to build a wardrobe for job interviews or to wear to their place of employment.

Many of us have items in our closet we have purchased and never worn and don't know what to do with them. This is the perfect opportunity to do some Spring cleaning and to donate these items to help some motivated moms better their lives.

In addition to the clothing, we offer our clients help with resume writing and have conversations with them about office etiquette. We expect to run our event in June.

A NEVER-ENDING LOVE STORY

It happens often. One of our mentors begins working with a pregnant young woman or new mom and that relationship develops into a deeply personal connection between them because it is based on unconditional love.

Many of you probably know Kathy Turlick as our Gala chairwoman. She does a wonderful job with it and we are so blessed to have her as part of our team and she is a member of our Board of Trustees. Kathy has been volunteering with New Hope for 12 years and one of her favorite roles is that of mentor.

Samantha was pregnant and came to New Hope for support and Kathy was assigned as her mentor. Kathy quickly found out that Samantha had no family or close friends nearby. When Samantha went to the hospital for the birth of her son, Kathy went with her and you can see Kathy in the delivery room holding Liam (upper right). Their relationship blossomed into one that is truly like a mother/daughter one. Even though Samantha has "graduated" from New Hope's program and now lives in Florida, Kathy maintains a very close relationship with her, and Liam, including visits. This life-altering relationship is what your support enables and the rewards our volunteers reap are amazing as well. You can view a short video testimonial from Samantha and Liam at: <https://youtu.be/qgkn2v4LAms>.

COLLEGE JOB FAIRS

College job fairs are a wonderful opportunity for New Hope to get the word out about what we do and to provide students with internship opportunities. We recently attended fairs at both Seton Hall University (top photo) and St. Thomas Aquinas College (bottom photo). Students will often receive credit for these semester or summer internships with us. We always discuss our mission: offering assistance to any person, male and female, struggling with crisis pregnancies and how we support them in bringing their baby to the fullness of life. It was heartwarming to see that the majority of those who stopped at our table were young men eager to learn more about the beginnings and the protection of precious new life. These were great conversations and it was a wonderful experience to engage with these students.

Every Life is Precious ...

And We Await the Arrival of These Little Ones

Save the Date

Please join us as we gather for our traditional Annual Gala at Seasons on Thursday, October 6, 2022. It will be so wonderful to be together again!
